I understand that the status "Dissertation Completion" is subject to the following conditions:

- This status is intended solely for students who are completing their dissertations under the supervision of a member of the Graduate School faculty.
- Students may request enrollment with this status for up to four consecutive terms, but may not petition to be reinstated as full-time students in the future. Students are charged the Continuous Registration Fee each term they enroll with this status.
- Students enrolled with this status are considered to be part-time, are not subject to restrictions on employment, may purchase student affiliate coverage through the Yale Health Plan, and are typically not eligible to defer student loans.
- International students must obtain approval from the Office of International Students and Scholars to enroll with this status:
